For the holiday weekend, we wanted to provide you with a few more ways to have fun. The following sites allow you to play and download classic and retro games such as DOS games, classic adventure games and old console games. Anonymous Game Developers (AGD) Interactive AGD Interactive is a group developing the game that has committed to bring back classic adventure games by remaking classic Sierra On-Line adventure games such as King's Quest. They were redirected with improved graphics, polished voice performance and more, and now offer them as free downloads. They also have a company for commercial adventure games Himalaya Studios. VirtualNES VirtualNES offers hundreds of vintage Nintendo Entertainment System (NES) games that you can play online. They also offer some special games, such as unlicensed games by enterprising developers, unconvpie games that have remained unfinished, and excellent home games by people who adore video games and choose to make their own. The NES brought a home gaming console on arrival. Nintendo8.com Nintendo8.com offers hundreds of classic 8-bit Nintendo games from the 1980s and early 1990s, available for online game. This is a link site that doesn't actually host any ROMs. All games related to the site are assumed to be abandoned software or copyleft. The games use the vNES emulator from the VirtualNES website above. They also have some sister sites that offer other classic console games that you can play online. Snessy (SNES games) c64i (Commodore 64 games) DOSDose (DOS Games) MasterSystem8 (SEGA games) GBemul (Gameboy games) DOSBox DOSBox offers a full DOS environment that runs ancient DOS applications on Windows, Mac OS X, Linux and other UNIX-like operating systems. Emulates intel x86 PC, with sound, graphics, mouse, joystick, etc., needed to run many old DOS games that can not be run on modern operating systems. They also offer frontends to DOSBox, such as the D-Fend Reloaded (discussed below) to facilitate the use of DOSBox. For more information about using dosbox, see our article. D-Fend Reloaded D-Fend Reloaded is a graphics environment or frontend for DOSBox. DosBox installation and configuration can be complicated. The D-Fend Reloaded installation package includes DOSPC and PC-Bert, which are clones of PacMan, ms. PacPC and PC-Bert, which are clones of PacMan, ms. PacMan and Q-Bert. For more information about installing and using D-Fend Reloaded, see our article on this. MAME (Multiple Arcade Machine Emulator) MAME is a non-profit project that aims to preserve many historical arcade games so as not to disappear when the hardware on which they operate ceases to work. To play games on MAME, you must provide original ROMs, CDs or hard drives from Machines. No original code in the EXm. There are also frontends for MOMS (available on the above link) that make it easier to use, or you can use MAMEUI, which is a desktop-oriented GUI front end for MOMS. For more information about MAME and MAMEUI, see our article on playing classic arcade games on your computer. Some game developers have released some of their games for free that you can download from moms developer sites. Abandonia Abandonia offers portable, classic abandonware games for DOS. Abandonware games have discontinued game programs for which no product support is available and whose copyright ownership has expired. Most games on the site have an overview, screenshots, editor rating, and user rating. Browse and download old computer games by name, year, ratings, and category. Abandonware DOS Abandonware Games offers a great selection of game abandonware DOS, which no one anymore supports. Games can be downloaded in categories such as actions, racing, RPG and strategy. Most games have star rating, status (freeware, shareware, etc.), screenshots, and facts and trivia about the game. Classic arcade games Classic arcade games offers free online arcade games that you can play online or even add to your own website or blog. They have many retro games like Super Mario World, Galaga, PacMan, Donkey Kong Classic, and Sonic The Jeoth. FreeClassicDosGames.com Free Classic DOS Games offers about 200 free games, most of which are equipped with review, description, screenshots and download link. The types of games available include action, adventure, arcade, role-playing, shoot-em'up and strategy. You can browse each category by category, or use the search feature to find a specific game. RGB Classic Games RGB Classic Games offers a great combination of classic games, previously unpublished games, and even some modern DOS games. RGB Classic Games is designed to preserve classic games for defunct PC operating systems (DOS, CP/M-86, OS/2, Win16, Win9x) and make it easier to play them on modern computers. Almost all games on RGB Classic Games were originally distributed commercially, except for a few shareware games that were exceptionally good. RGB Classic games focus on quality, not quantity and also try to include each version of each game listed on the site. From the site: The highest ideals of this site are to support authors by providing links to their websites and ordering information for full versions of games that are still being sold, and encouraging authors of classic games to retain their games for future generations by making them available for sale or as free software. If you enjoy shareware, consider buying from the author. All games on RGB Classic Games are freely distributed because they are shareware, freeware, or because the copyright holder has officially and legally issued all rights to the public domain (abandonware). DOS Games Archive DOS Games archive of 275 DOS games from the 1980s and 1990s that can be downloaded free of charge. They are shareware, freeware, playback demos and full versions of games that are released as freeware or in the public domain. Free Game Empire Free Game Empire offers classic games that you play directly in Firefox or Internet Explorer. The emulator in the browser is powered by DOSBox. They also have many forums dedicated to discussing games, blog and my games section where you can sign up and find all your active games. They also offer some old games to buy, which are still sold for reasonable prices. You need to download each game to your computer, but the game game takes place in your browser. Each game only has to be downloaded once. After that, you can return to and play the website at any time. The emulator can be removed from the control panel. Games on Free Game Empire can only be played in Windows. Play.vg Play.vg offers classic DOS games that you can play online, such as PacMan and Sonic the Jemp, without downloading anything to your computer. Simply use the ARROW KEYS and SPACEBAR to play games such as Zork, Asteroids and Tetris. Abandonware on Free Games Downloads Free Game Downloads offers a great collection of free games for abandoned software. Their side is not very exciting to watch, but it is easy to navigate through categories and look for certain games. Their list of games also includes some remade versions of classic Atari games. Remain And Play Remain and Play offers commercial DOS and non-DOS games that have been intentionally issued as freeware. They have a lot of new and old games to download. You can sort games by name, genre, OS and even the type of game data. To search by ratings, see their list of the top 10 games in the left sidebar. Bgames.com Bgames.com offers free classic games in Flash format such as RetroMash, Warning Foregone and Alley Fighter. They update their list of fresh, free games daily. You can also browse other games that you can play online, games that are available for download, mass multiplayer online role-playing games (MMORPG) games, and multiplayer games. Free classic games online flash games Online Flash games offers classic games for free in its classic/retro category such as break-out games, Tetris games, Mario games, Sonic games, Arkanoid games, and Invader games. You can also find Flash remakes of old consoles or platforms such as the Commodore 64. Online-Games-Zone Online-Games-Zone offers free classic games, retro games and old school games to play online such as Tetris and PacMan. The thumbnails of the games in the middle of the page are not listed alphabetically. Or you can find the alphabetical list on the left. All Oldies All Oldies offers free classic games that you can find all over the web that you can play online. All games, except for multiplayer games, do not require registration. They are of good quality and are always free. GamezArena offers a collection of free online classic games such as Ludo, Connect 4, Solitaire and Battleship. You can also license or buy these games to add them to your website. Free Classic 80's Arcade Games Free Classic 80's Arcade Games offers classic Atari 2600 games from the 1980s, Nintendo (NES), Intellivision and Colecovision games and even the game Pong Game Console to play online. They also have Shockwave, Flash, and Java games and classic DOS games. Pogo.com Pogo.com offers a collection of classic games that you can play online, such as Monopoly, Chess and Cribbage. You can register for free, so you can enter opportunities to win prizes every day and earn tokens that you can keep and redeem for fun gifts. Join Club Pogo to get access to premium classic games and play ad-free games. Club Pogo also allows you to download multiple games on the download page. By September 10, 2012, you can join The Pogo Club for $29.99 a year, which is $10 from the normal price. You can also browse their collection of free games. GOG.com GOG.com offers 100% DRM-free games for sale, of which it is much less than $20. When you buy a game, you own it. There is no limit to how often you can download your games from GOG.com cloud. You can also install them on as many computers as you want and make them back without restrictions. They also contain exclusive content as free bonus downloads. When you sign up, you receive 9 PC classic games for free, including Beneath a Steel Sky and Ultima IV, so you can try GOG.com out before buying any games. Wikipedia's List of Commercial Video Games Released as Freeware Wikipedia has a list of commercial video games released as freeware. These games were not free software when it was originally released, but were re-released later with a license for free software, sometimes as publicity for upcoming text or commanational release. The list is quite avtic. There is also a list of games that were originally released as free software. For a list of FOSS games (free and open source software) or FLOSS (free/libre/open source software), see the list of open source video games on Wikipedia. In addition to our article on playing classic arcade games on your COMPUTER, which was mentioned earlier, we also covered how to play retro video games on your computer. You can also learn how to use your Nintendo DS to play old NES, Gameboy, and even arcade games. Also learn fun trivia video games on Did You Know Gaming?. For reviews of games, interviews, features, previews, fraudsters and forums, see Adventure Classic Gaming. There is even a website that allows you to play games to search for words online. Have fun! Fun!
